

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 10, 1858.

THE WALKER FAMILY.

The unquenchable thirst of literary faciend seems too good to be lost, and may serve at least as a grateful vicissitude amid the more serious and ponderous reading with which our columns are sometimes crowded; while those who furnish the subject of this jeu d'esprit will, we are sure, excuse the liberty taken with their patronymic in consideration of the wit exercised upon it.—Nat. Int.

The Smiths and the Joneses and the Patersons, names once classic in the history of our country, are about to be robbed of their glorious associations that have hitherto made them familiar to the people as household words. John Smith—the venerable John—who has been so long the patriarch of the family, is now the subject of a eulogistic obituary notice, and the Joneses, who were once the subject of a eulogistic obituary notice, are now the subject of a eulogistic obituary notice. The Patersons, who were once the subject of a eulogistic obituary notice, are now the subject of a eulogistic obituary notice.

This "Walker" family is in many respects remarkable. It can boast of incalculable antiquity and royal ancestry. The Smiths are descended from Tubal Cain, a cunning artificer in all sorts of metals, but Adam himself was a Walker. In primitive days there were no railways, or steamboats, or stage coaches, and it is nowhere mentioned that Adam was ever seen on a horseback. In the early history of our country the Walker family played no mean part. Who has not read the affecting story of the "Devil and Tom Walker," rendered classic by the inimitable pen of Washington Irving? This Thomas Walker, it is true, did not reflect much credit upon the name, having involved himself rather unpleasantly by an unfortunate business transaction with the Prince of Evil, but nevertheless he cut a distinguished figure for a brief season, and his name will be handed down to countless generations in the future. Since Tom Walker disappeared from the stage, the Walkers have kept remarkably quiet until a very recent period.

The fact is, Tom Walker's transactions were, to say the least of them, rather disreputable, and the younger members of the family have, with commendable modesty, refrained from thrusting themselves forward as prominent actors upon the public stage. Recently, however, two of the name have suddenly sprung into marvellous notoriety. President Buchanan, finding it almost as difficult to deal with the unruly people of Kansas as it would be to treat with the Prince of Darkness, and recollecting the daring spirit of the Walkers, called one of them from comparative retirement and set him into Kansas to manage the rebels. This was Robert J. Another of the family, named William, having probably inherited the adventurous spirit of his ancestor Tom, struck out on his own hook some years ago, and has made several huge attempts to figure as a great man on the soil of the neighboring Republic of Nicaragua.

The appointment of Robert J. seems to have resulted as disastrously to the Democracy as Tom's contract with the Devil did to him. It has only made "confusion worse confounded," while the Governor has become a more distinguished and probably a more popular man. The other gentleman, Gen. William Walker, seems to have in his veins all the recklessness and hardihood and love of fame and gain that marked the character of the adventurous Thomas, and which finally lured him to his ruin. Tom finally fell into the hands of the Devil, in conformity with a precise contract; William, Paulding, whose father was of the gallant Major Andre, and was arrested to the Government at Washington. In one respect Com. Paulding did not imitate the wisdom of the Serpent. The Devil never would have liberated Tom Walker on his parole of honor.

What disposition will be made of the General remains to be seen. We think it likely that the Administration has come to the conclusion long since that Tom is not the only one of the Walker family that has been in league with the Devil.—Stanton Spectator.

HUMANITY TO HORSES.

A person who has had some experience with horses says:

"When a horse has fallen, from the slippery state of the ground, the readiest method of enabling him to rise is to place a piece of old rug or carpet under his fore feet, and he will be able to get up at once. Many horses are seriously strained by their efforts to rise on slippery ground, and this is most particularly the case with those of high spirit, and frequently those of greatest value to themselves, as well as danger to those in the carriage, ensue from vain efforts to get up than by the fall. Let the driver leap down at once and assist the horse to get in a position to get up, at the same time placing a rug, carpet, or even old coat, under his feet."

PLAN OF THE LOTTERY.

The Numbers from 1 to 50,000, corresponding with those Numbers on the Tickets printed on separate slips of paper, are enclosed with small tin tubes, and placed in one wheel.

The wheels are then revolved, and a number is drawn from the wheel of Numbers, and at the same time a Prize is drawn from the other wheel. The Number and Prize drawn out are opened and exhibited to the audience, and registered by the Commissioners, the Prize being placed against the number drawn. This operation is repeated until all the Prizes are drawn out.

APPROXIMATION PRIZES.—The two preceding and the two succeeding Numbers to those drawing the first 7 Prizes, will be entitled to the 28 Approximation Prizes.

For example: If Ticket No. 11250 draws the $700 Prize, those Tickets numbered 11248, 11249, 11251, 11252, will each be entitled to the $300 Prize; those Tickets numbered 548, 549, 551, 552, will each be entitled to $300, and so on according to the above scheme.

The 5,000 Prizes of $20 will be determined by the last figure of the Number that draws the $700 Prize. For example, if the Number drawing the $700 Prize ends with No. 1, then all the Tickets where the Number ends in 1, will be entitled to $20, and so on to 0.

Certificates of Packages will be sold at the following rates, which is the risk:

do do 10 half do 40.00

MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.—R. FRANCE & CO., Managers. CAUTION.

NOTICE.—Persons living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets. The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them—Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes—with tickets at one dollar.

$100,000 Capital Prizes are offered, tickets $5. If the prize is drawn, are frauds, and if money is sent to them for tickets, it is so much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of tickets. In every instance where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain swindle.

The Shelby College Lottery, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland Drawings, all other Lotteries which purport to be decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being right, and in ordering in the Maryland State Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

One thing look to, and that is, if you order from any licensed vendor in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signature of R. FRANCE & CO.

No one has a right to send his individual certificates, and if he does he is sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it. R. FRANCE & CO., Managers of Maryland State Lotteries, feb 15—3mo
